COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO HOLD MOUNT PLEASANT LISTENING SESSION

Public invited to ask questions, share concerns

Racine – Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave will hold his next monthly listening session on Monday, June 18, 2018, from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Mount Pleasant Village Hall, 8811 Campus Drive.

The listening session was moved to be held in conjunction with the Foxconn Project Briefing scheduled for 6:00 p.m. The listening session will take place in Community Room No. 1.

Residents are invited to speak with the County Executive about any county-related topic. No appointment is necessary. The public is also encouraged to stay for the Foxconn Project Briefing to learn more about Foxconn and the status of the development.

“My listening sessions are an important way to connect with Racine County residents and address any questions or concerns,” Delagrave said. “Residents should know I am available and accessible to listen to what’s on their minds and offer whatever support is possible through the County.”

Accompanying Delagrave to the listening session will be members of the County Executive’s staff and members of various County departments. County Supervisors and other elected officials may also attend if their schedules permit.

Since taking office in 2015, Delagrave has held monthly listening sessions in municipalities throughout the Racine County. Listening sessions are typically held on the second Wednesday of each month, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., though these days are subject to change. The next listening session is scheduled for Norway Town Hall, 6419 Heg Park Road, on Wednesday, July 11.
